MONTANA TEACHERS MAKE PRESENTATIONS
AT WESTERN BUSINESS EDUCATION CONVENTION

MISSOULA--

Don Jermunson and Mrs. Verna Kruse from the business department of Havre High School and Larry Pagett from the business department of Seeley-Swan High School made oral presentations on vocational programs at the recent Western Business Education Association convention in Portland, Ore. The convention was in March.

The teachers' presentations concerned vocational programs currently underway in their respective schools. Members of the association from each of eight western states were asked to sponsor presentations on innovative and outstanding vocational programs.

Dr. Donald B. Koeppen, chairman of the University of Montana Department of Business Education and Office Administration, coordinated Montana's program. Dr. William E. Patton, a lecturer in the department, chaired the meeting at which the presentations were made.
